

Waiver for Ceramics Class

Class Policies

- Students are expected to follow all safety guidelines while in the studio and during any event.
- Each student must have a signed waiver on file before the start of any class or open studio session.
- Photos taken in the studio or at any event of students and/or their artwork are permissible for use in studio publications.
- Ceramics is a multi-step process. There are many variables along the way that may result in breakage, color inconsistencies, etc. Therefore, a fully functional end project is not guaranteed.

Safety when working with clay and visiting the studio

- Always follow the instruction of your teacher
- Please ask before using equipment or tools
- Please ask for help during glazing
- Use caution in the studio when the kiln is firing
- Proper attire such as apron, long hair tied back, etc
- Keep your workspace clean and free of dust by using a wet sponge
- Please keep food away from your work space and the studio
- Always walk and use an inside voice
- Ask questions and have fun

While attending a class offered by Julie Berkowitz Ceramics, I hereby release, its agents, representatives, successors, or assignees, including Julie Berkowitz Ceramics, from all liabilities, actions, claims, damages, demands, costs, and expenses which I am now or in the future have against them, arising out of or in any way connected with my participation in art classes, including enroute to or from the studio, event, or class. I understand that the waiver includes, but is not limited to, all injuries to me and or loss of injuries to any personal property. I also understand that this waiver includes, but is not limited to, any claims that are negligence or any other action or inaction of any of the above parties.
